

Please maintain the highest standard possible for nudity and profanity free television. Our children shouldn't be exposed to obscene images and/or language. Our goal is to teach our children respect and honor for every person and that sexual relationships are designed for marriage. Lowering the standard will undoubtedly affect our society negatively. Please don't lower the bar!

Eric Reed